marriage in monochrome

This southside couple chose the stylish surrounds of GoMA for their black-and-white themed wedding.

THE BIG DAY

THEY'D BEEN TOGETHER for over three years when Budhi Iriks, 26, whisked Sarah Fedrick, 27, away for her birthday to Crystal Creek Rainforest Retreat in Murwillumbah before proposing on bended knee. The duo wed in Malwar Green at GoMA, South Bank, and celebrated with 80 guests on the rooftop terrace with an elegant vintage theme planned by white + white wedding + events director Danielle Manning. The couple returned to Crystal Creek Rainforest Retreat to honeymoon.

Best part of the day? Budhi: "There was so much laughter shared between Sarah, myself and our loved ones."

The cake? Ideas in Icing created the one-tier black-and-white iced cake.

The flowers? The bridal bouquet contained white freesias and roses and lime green berries from Habitat Flowers.
